

Cannabis-Centric Group Travel Zol Travel Group Launches Late January 2019

DENVER ? February 1, 2019 /Canna Newswire/ ?]Zol Travel Group, a social-media-focused, group travel company, allows people to safely and comfortably explore the unique cannabis cultures of cities around the world, with hosts who are experts in both travel and cannabis, with the first trip launching on April 16, 2019 <https://zoltravel.com>

Group travel is popular among young adults and seniors, the very same groups who are leading the way in recreational cannabis use. While there are many popular group travel companies, with hosts who have a variety of expertise, none of them focus on the unique culture of cannabis.

Canna-travelers have until February 19th to sign up for the initial trip to Amsterdam (April 16th to 21st, 2019). Each trip gives its participants the opportunity to participate in the decision-making before the trip by voting on cannabis-focused activities and more via Instagram and Facebook stories. This allows travelers an in-depth look at what is in store.

For a set fee of $2,282 per person (double occupancy) ?or $2,783 for solo travelers, the traveler will get: round-trip flight from NYC to Amsterdam, four-night hotel stay at a 3.5 star hotel, breakfast each morning, transportation, coffee shop and munchie crawl, A'dam Lookout, two museums tours, a bicycle tour, a cannabis-friendly canal tour, the Cannabis College tour and more. Other trip pricing ranges between $1,000 and $4,000 per person, depending on location, length of stay and activities included.

The service is ideal for those who do not have the connections, time or resources to create a cannabis-centric vacation. It is also useful for those who are interested in knowing more about the customs, arts, social institutions, and achievements of a particular cannabis community.

The team includes Damien Williams, CEO of Herbalista Set (a cannabis brand geared towards Women's Health) and Maggie Jay, four-year editor of Travel and Cannabis (an informative website on all things travel and cannabis) and former freelance travel writer for Cannabis Now, Culture Magazine and The Hemp Connoisseur.

Zol Travel Group can help with other travel plans as well, such as honeymoons or group travel for business. The team can also help travelers set up and plan activities or specific portions, of their upcoming trips.
