

New Premium CBD Brand Cultivate Launches, Offering All-Natural Daily Wellness

RENO, Nev. ? April 12, 2019 /Canna Newswire/ ? ]Cultivate, a health-conscious brand focusing on thoughtfully-developed wellness products for the body, mind and spirit, announces the official launch of a new collection of high-quality Cannabidiol (?CBD?) based consumer products that are intended to foster a sense of well-being and bring balance to its users' lives.

The company's line of tinctures, softgels, and topical balms are crafted with high-quality, broad-spectrum, phytocannabinoid-rich hemp oil. These 100% THC-free, plant-based, supplements are specially formulated to help maintain optimum daily wellness. ?We have taken great care to create safe, natural, and effective products so as to give Cultivate customers a better overall quality of life,? said Gina Champion-Cain, CEO of Cultivate, who noted that the hemp industry is set to explode into a multi-billion-dollar business within the next year or two.

?The medicinal properties of Cannabis sativa L. are very real, and the positive impact it can have on people is amazing? we have only scratched the surface of what cannabinoids can do. The future opportunities are endless.?
