

LinkResPet Launches E-commerce Site, Delivering CBD For Pets Across North America

KINGTON, England ? May 15, 2019 /OTC PR WIRE via Canna Newswire/ ?] LinkResPet (OTC: LRSV), a subsidiary of Link Reservations Inc., a company providing Cannabidiol (CBD) products especially tailored for pets, announces the launch of its e-commerce site. Consumers in the US and Canada will now be able to purchase LinkResPet's CBD products for dogs, cats and horses on www.linkrespet.com.

?This is a big step, as it cements our foothold in the North American market. Having an online shop is vital for our brand and more importantly our customers, who are predominantly e-commerce native. Developing our e-commerce site certainly helps us reach more customers ? particularly those who don't have pet shops carrying CBD product near them ? but in the current market, digital represents a big chunk of retailing activity in the sector and we are determined to be part of it!?

With the new e-shop, the company is intending to roll a subscription option, allowing customers to get a recurring package of LinkResPet CBD products for their pets and ensuring they never run out. Additionally, schemes that allow users to curate their own CBD product boxes are also being considered.
