

First Annual Bay Area Cannabis Pride Celebration

An inspiring evening celebrating the roots of cannabis access, LGBTQ leadership, and compassion activism

SAN FRANCISCO ? July 8, 2019 /Canna Newswire/ ?] Cannabis and the LGBTQ community have a long and deeply intertwined history, especially here in the San Francisco Bay Area. Originally led by gay and cannabis activist Dennis Peron, ?Brownie Mary? (Mary Jane Rathbun) and other important LGBTQ leaders and activists, and today, the LGBTQ community continues to be a driving force for leadership, access, and innovation in the cannabis industry.

Tali Eisenberg with Geter Done Productions, in partnership with Brian Applegarth of The Cannabis Trail, are holding the 1st Annual Bay Area Cannabis Pride Celebration on July 11th in Oakland, California. Their goal is to draw attention to the groundbreaking activism of the LGBTQ community in the development of the modern cannabis industry and they will honor the pioneers who ignited an international health movement of cannabis access.

The celebration draws attention to the queer role in the cannabis journey, and through engaging and compelling programming, we honor the history and the movement and amplify brands that are supportive of the LGBTQ community. We will honor those who have worked to bring cannabis to the ones who needed it most and revel in the access we have today.

Sherry Glaser - actor, comedian, cannabis activist and founder of Love In It Cooperative - will emcee the evening featuring storytelling from the original + local Compassion Activists including Terrance Alan (co-owner of Cafe Flore, SF), John Entwistle (Dennis Peron's partner), Kris Hayashi (Executive Director, Transgender Law Center) and other important LGBTQ leaders of our industry that continue to contribute and pave the way for what our cannabis industry is today.

There will be a screening of Brian Applegarth's 16-minute documentary The Secret Story: How Medical Cannabis Was Re-Legalized in the US, which is based on conversations Applegarth had with Dennis Peron, and chronicles the critical role the queer community played in legalizing medical cannabis with leading the way in their quest for medical cannabis legalization.

To top off the evening there will be a wonderful community dance party with special guests from the LGBTQ community.

5 percent of the evening's proceeds will be donated to the Transgender Law Center and the important work they do fighting for equal legal rights for the trans community.

The cannabis educational marketplace will highlight local cannabis brands, organizations, and brand allies in a beautiful indoor/outdoor setting.

Tickets are $25 and available for purchase through the Geter Done Productions website. This is a non-consumption gathering and all attendees must be 21 and over. www.cannabispriidecelebration.com
