

GL420 Enterprise is a Minority Woman Owned Cannabis Company in Los Angeles County, with a One-of-a-Kind Cultivation Facility that is now Open

NORTHRIDGE, Calif. ? February 9, 2021 /Canna Newswire/ ?] GL420 Enterprise officially announces the grand opening of their 23,000 square foot state-of-the-art cultivation center located in the heart of Northridge. GL420 Enterprise is a state and city licensed facility for Cannabis cultivation, manufacturing, and distribution company.

Introducing GL420's CEO and visionary, Gina Kang. Gina's passion for the Cannabis plant is what initially inspired her to be part of this growing industry. Her 20 years in Real Estate experience as a successful business owner in Los Angeles has prepared her for the challenging environment of legal Cannabis. From the beginning she knew that her savvy business talents would be an asset to building a successful Cannabis business. With that in mind she set her sights on building a team, "the GL420 family" as she describes it, that would help GL420 Enterprise become a reality.

GL420's CEO Gina Kang is a smart and fearless leader with a strong team that is poised to take the Cannabis industry to the next level with real world business experience and Cannabis experts that know great Cannabis.

When asked what she enjoys about Cannabis "Cannabis has changed my life in becoming a better person. Cannabis allows me to take a breath, calm my emotions and deal with challenges with reason." The field of women in the Cannabis cultivation business has increased in the past decade and this entrepreneur is determined to be a part of this growing culture and community. The GL420 team is a diverse group of experienced and passionate people that are dedicated to producing the very best quality products and service.

GL420's executive team starts with her COO, Laszlo Nemeth and Chief Cultivation Officer, Steve Nemenyi. Much of the design and structure of GL420's cultivation facility is based on Steve's efficient cultivation practices alongside with Laszlo's lifetime experience in building world class Cannabis cultivation facilities. Robert Lewis an industry vet, is the Director of Marketing and Distribution. Robert's dynamic and successful business building background is the perfect fit for GL420.

GL420's Brand Development Director, Rosemarie Gomes is a central figure in research and development and a hub across every department in the company. Brittany Vinci fits perfectly as Logistics Coordinator, she is an industry expert with her finger on the pulse of GL420, making sure all products meet required compliance and distributed to retail partners with efficiency.

The GL420 headquarters is a 23,000 square foot facility is truly unique and has an extremely efficient room by room grow process. The cycle of life at GL420 is a circle of many rooms designed for every stage of the growing process. Once the cycle begins, the momentum of growing never stops. From clone to container, every step is well controlled and overseen. This best-in-class facility has a projection of producing one hundred pounds of fully processed premium Cannabis per week.

The first set of products to be introduced from GL420 Enterprise is a brand of Cannabis concentrates called 5Carats. The ultra-premium line of concentrates will be available in the form of batters, sauces, and diamonds. They will be available in select
